

BOSS EXACT PATH™ Designed to Deice Sidewalks and Walkways
New Drop Spreader Prevents Salt Waste, Protects Grass and Landscaping

Iron Mountain, Mich. (June 5, 2018) — BOSS Snowplow introduces the new EXACT PATH™, a drop spreader with an innovative design that precisely drops deicing material while protecting grass and landscaping. Precise application also makes quick work of sidewalk jobs to increase efficiency and profitability for snow and ice contractors.

Available in 2.5 cubic feet and 6.0 cubic feet capacities, EXACT PATH™ offers three mounting options to fit UTVs, compact/sidewalk vehicles and tractors. A stainless steel hopper and frame with a polyethylene cover keep materials dry and free-flowing. An exclusive feed gate lever makes it easy to adjust material flow—no tools needed.

“The BOSS EXACT PATH is a tool that we designed with the day-to-day challenges of snow and ice professionals in mind. It focuses on solving the problems that contractors face when deicing sidewalks and walkways,” said Mark Klossner, marketing vice president for BOSS Snowplow. “Ultimately, improved tools like EXACT PATH help contractors stay ahead of the curve to increase profitability for their businesses and provide high-quality service to their customers.”
